Orange Clergy at Redcliff

tutional Government.

EMINENCE OF DOMAIN

tion of Two Languages

The present Ulster deadlock on the Irish Home Rule question in the old country sheds a pertinent light on the statements of local and visiting Orangemen made at a rousing meeting held in the Empress Theatre on Wednesday evening in which business was combined with pleasure.

Rev. Harvey Moore, formerly of Essex county, Ont., addressed the capacity crowd present in the hall making a strong denunciation of religious institutions of the day which interfere in any way with public and "secular" life. Rev. Moore, now grand organizer of the Orangemen in Alberta, and resident in Edmonton, gave a review of the inception of what is known as the Loyal Orange Lodge, and drew attention to the fact that, although the meeting was held on Wednesday, Nov. 5, was memorable as the day of the frustration of the "Gunpowder Plot."

A dissenter with the views of the Rev. Moore disturbed the meeting for a moment and was requested to leave, although the meeting was open to the general public.

Rev. Moore placed particular emphasis on the fact that the contentions of the Orangemen are not intended as a war on the individual but their condemnation is of principles and institutions. The speaker continued to show wherein the schools are at fault in teaching more than one language.

"There is only one province in the entire Dominion where English and English alone is the tongue taught in the public schools," said Rev. Moore, "and that is British Columbia."

"If the English language is good enough for one, it is good enough for all and we as Orangemen pledge ourselves to campaign for it until we get it. Also, the French tongue is used not infrequently in the Dominion parliament, which practice should be stamped out."

"There are a great many things you people are not aware of—the way our public schools, (Continued on Second Page.)

EMPRESS BUYERS LOOSEN UP FOR QUARTER MILLION

Highest Price Paid for Single
Lot in New C. P. R.
Town Was $3,200.

Empress has made the light fellows known yesterday and the results in cash sales were astounding. The aggregate of sales reached $270,000. The fact that there is such an amount of money, more than a quarter of a million, on tap in a day's sales for lots in a town where the sole sustenance of it for the present at least seems to be the employment feature of it being a C. P. R. divisional point, should induce local men to the opportunities which the advertising door opens. One good line action of the week was the way the Empress buyers were caught by advertising Redcliff with auto-laden banners.

Take Care of Needy Cases
When Brought to Notice

Editor of Redcliff Review.

Referring to your article in last issue on the charitable work needed in such a town as this, allow me to say that the Strangers' Committee of the Presbyterian Congregation is prepared and anxious to help persons in any manner of need. Such work, in a Western town, where one had a competency yesterday, is poor to-day and expects to be wealthier to-morrow, to be effective and acceptable must be done secretly, without letting the right hand know what the left doeth.

The Committee can see that any money and goods placed at its disposal are given to worthy persons and at the same time, injure the feelings of no recipient.

Persons needing help of any kind and parties knowing where aid is needed should consult the Strangers' Secretary Mr. D. F. R. Robertson of the Redcliff Furniture Co., or myself. In this work, as in much else, we are quite undomesticated. What we can do we will do, irrespective of denominational leanings.

I am pleased that the Review, with true public spirit, makes all the interests of the town its own interests. Yours to help,
G. LAWSON GORDON.

With the approach of winter such that the Redcliff Band officers have an idea of what permanent material is at hand to be worked up into an organization of stability, the band has again been put on the track by meeting Sunday morning in the basement of the school house for practice.

Mr. C. T. Hall, one of the most active band men, states that several new men have turned up who bring a spirit and ability that promises some good results. All band men are requested to be present at the school house Sunday morning.

ROLLER MILLS TURNING OUT LARGE ORDERS

Two Weeks' Operation Find
Mill in Receipt of Big Volume of Business.

$5,000 PAY-ROLL

Trade Outlook Bright in Face of Supposedly Dismal Building Conditions.

One hundred and fifty tons of reinforcing iron must be billed out of Redcliff by the Rolling Mills by November 10 to fill a large order, and Supt. McCleary says that every pound of it will be in transit by the above date. The industrial horizon could not look brighter as far as this industry is concerned, said Mr. McCleary. Orders are coming in fast and the company is taking on more men. The payroll now is over sixty-five men in the plant and on the scrap heap. About two-thirds of the immense plant is being utilized already and the nut and bolt mill is just to start. The opening of this new part of the plant will mean increasing the payroll by a score or more. Mr. McCleary's prediction that 100 tons will be shipped by the first of the year looks as though it will not fall short of the mark. All employees are high salaried men and the plant will be one of the best in the city for putting money into circulation.

Stagnant portions of the business were shipped out this week, said Mr. McCleary yesterday. These consignments are of what are termed "squares" and "flats" for reinforced concrete construction. The big order on which the company is now working is of 150 tons for a western consumer. The car shipments which went out during the week were photographed by a local photographer to get a composite picture of an entire train load of banners of the company.

The side advertising "Made-in-Redcliff" Rolling Mills products. Tomorrow night the company will complete two weeks of regular commercial operation and for that two weeks $2,000 will go into circulation when the men are paid off. The payroll in a few weeks will probably exceed $6,000 a month, said Mr. McCleary. The average wage of the plant is $4.50 per man per diem. Some of the employees receive as much as $8 a day. The high paid men men are on the foreman's rolls.

The daily output of the roller mills is 20 tons of the finished product. A question raised by a party the other day to Review representative as to the supply of scrap iron available for the manufacturing done by the Roller Mills brings forth the reply from Mr. McCleary that one firm in Spokane alone is guaranteed an annual supply of 100,000 tons. This supply is several times the consumption of the roller plant, so there is no danger of a shortage of supply of the material.

A Calgary contractor has been supplied the Roller Mills to date. One consumer in the Canadian West has agreed to take a probable consumption of the finished product of 2,000 tons a year. Other orders are coming in as the plant becomes known, and a large volume of business with contractors will be in sight when the spring building activity starts, as the output of the mill includes "T," angles, steel, and that are used widely in construction work.

One great advantage of the business to-day, said Mr. McCleary, is the reversion to the use of scrap instead of pig iron. The saving in waste and the amount of iron being scrapped every year assumes a supply for an indefinite period.

The Roller Mills will soon be lighted by electricity. The Company is not putting a line of its own plant of its own and the huge installation will show up on a brilliant night.

REDFCLIFF CLUB OPENS FURNISHED COMPLETE

Members Took Possession of the New Quarters Last Evening.

With all of the furnishings in complete an informal opening of the luxurious new quarters of the Redcliff Club was held last evening with several out-of-town guests of the evening in attendance. A large number of the club members were present and among the outsiders was Mr. A. D. Browne, assistant general manager of the Western British American and the Canadian-American, two journals published in Chicago and devoted to the interests of Western Canada. The club rooms are tasty in the main, with several plain but handsome built-in book-cases and fire places. The next room is a general lounge place with heavy chair and sofas upholstered in maple burl leather and a great center table some eighteen feet long. The room to the rear of this is a billiard and pool room with one pool table and an American billiard table. Two card rooms, one on the rear and the steward's quarters. A steward is already employed and will be permanently in attendance.

Mr. Browne, the guest of the evening yesterday, stated that during the course of his acquaintance with Western Canada he had been a guest of many clubs, but had never been in a better equipped one than the Redcliff Club, for one of its size. Mr. Browne expressed amazement at what was told him of the progress of Redcliff during the past nine months.

The Redcliff club will hold a meeting soon at which its charter officers will be elected. Being organized as a stock company, it must conform with certain requirements.

This afternoon the club is being visited by prominent men from Medicine Hat.

BOY THIEVES TAKEN AGAIN

Result of Second Arrest of Youthful Marauders
Is Problematical.

Once more in custody for thieving the two little fellows, Huntley Moore and Joe Tester, who two weeks ago were before the North-west Mounted Police at Medicine Hat for breaking into several places of business in Redcliff, now face a more serious penalty than they did on the first occasion. Another boy is in the custody of the police also. The charges for which the boys were apprehended this time are of entering occupied tents during the owner's absence and stealing mares, canyons and other articles of value. A Magistrate Henderson said this afternoon that an Edmonton official is being conferred with as to what course is advisable to follow.

The decision at the time of the last offense was that the boys were guilty, but as it was their first appearance in court, Inspector Shubert was lenient and passed a six-month suspended sentence, singing on good behavior. What the court's attitude now will be is hard to foretell. The boys are young fellows, being only nine and ten years old.

MERCHANTS PLAN TRADE TOUR FOR RURAL BUSINESS

Delegation to Motor Out
Country to Say Hello
For Redcliff

IS SPLENDID PLAN

Tuesday is The Day,— to Advertise 73 Local Business Places.

At a sequence to what the Review was endeavoring to get under way by an article in last week's paper it is understood that a merchant's and business men's committee is being formed in Redcliff to make a whirlwind get-acquainted motor tour of as much country to the north of the city as can be covered by that means next Tuesday. At least one auto load will go out and as many more as will join in the tour are wanted for the delegation.

The idea of the project is to impress upon the farmers and ranchers of the adjacent territory the diversity of Redcliff's business enterprises and the fact that merchandise of every description and of the latest styles and designs is to be had here at lower prices than in Medicine Hat.

That there are seventy-eight firms for individuals doing business in Redcliff today of various kinds is the one big argument that the committee is going to try to drive home jointly with the force of arguments that prices are lower and Redcliff a closer trade mart.

Mr. W. J. Boomer, Mr. Martin, of the Martin-Adams Co., and several others have announced their intention of going, and the contingent should number nearly a dozen auto loads if the merchants become alive to what it may mean to them. Mr. Boomer states that it is the plan of the party to merely re-perform Redcliff as a whole and urge the farmers to wake up to the advantages of Redcliff as a retail center.

"I have never been in a town where the people are so far in apportioning their business to support all of the merchants as they are in Redcliff," said Mr. Boomer in conversation the other day. "and I feel certain that more of us has cause for complaint in that respect."

Although the retail business in Redcliff has anticipated the industrial development somewhat ahead of the attendant influx of population, yet the situation is of but a few short months' duration, if even that, with the increasing local payroll, but, notwithstanding, it is well to look to the rural trade and now is considered the most opportune time to establish it securely and work into the good graces of the rural customer.

One idea that would prove a capital one to launch would be the time-honored custom of creating sign-boards at one-mile distances on the roads entering Redcliff with the proper distance indicated "to Redcliff, the Best Retail Center in Southern Alberta."

It is understood that the merchant's committee will have business made for at least the one auto used next Tuesday with the name Redcliff all around the machine.

ACCOUNTING FOR ALL EXPENSES IS DEMANDED

Monthly Council Meeting
Develops Heated Discussion on Sanitation,

Submitting a report Monday night at the regular council meeting regarding all bills and items of public expense that came before them, the finance committee of the council at the same time opposed vigorously the laxity of the system of disbursements on current accounts and expense accounts and recommended that the items be made more plain and specific. To cover quite considerable amounts of money disbursed under the general head of sundries is not right and proper, argued Councilor Lavelle, and Councilor Hodge contended that expense accounts must be made more clear.

MERCHANTS TO BE PAID.

The regular council meeting brought out the fact that the mayor has secured $15,000 in credit with city's bank, to be drawn upon at once. Before December 1 all of the city's load obligations will be wiped off of the books. The credit was secured in the strength of the sale of $70,000 block of water extension bonds, although the money from the bond brokers will not be forthcoming until the debentures in printed form are in their hands.

A by-law of no great importance was passed whereby the town is authorized to make payable its future instalments on the redemption of the $100,000 issue to the branches of the city's bank in one of the three cities of Montreal, Toronto and New York city. The fire hall by-law was read for a third time and passed. The closing official of certain street crossings north-west Second street in blocks 117, 119 and 120, as agreed to some time ago to do, was taken care of.

FOR THE COWS.

A pound-keeper's bylaw was read in the meeting and passed. It provides for the customary impounding of cattle and other domestic animals found roaming at large and a fine per head for each animal so found. The prices will be as follows: Bulls and stallions, $5; cows, calves, heifers, mares, geldings, $1; pigs and sheep, 50¢; foals, 10¢. These fines will be in addition to the keep of the animals, all ordinary stock being a half dollar a day.

The date of the final court of revision was set for November 10, at the hour of 8 o'clock in the evening.

Among some of the lesser business detail of the meeting was the passing of a recommendation for an sidewalk on north Second street in the business district. A walk will also be laid 150 feet from First avenue north on Third street north to the City Garage.

After Supp. Wray, of the Gas Company, submitted his estimate of the cost of gas pipe and the laying of the required amount to give high pressure for a siren whistle on the fire hall the cost to the city was evidently so inconspicuous with the benefit to be derived that the idea was abandoned. Mr. Wray figured that the necessary pipe could not be laid for less than $400 and the pipe itself costs in addition. The council decided to have its alarm at the Ormington farm plant. Chief of Police Remonds requested the deputizing of some one in Redcliff to have police power during his absence at Medicine Hat attending the district court session.

The sanitary conditions of the city came up for a lengthy discussion. Inspector Constable taking the stand that conditions would be the best obtainable under the present system if the people would comply with the sanitary by-law. Mayor Daniels retorted that they would have to comply and that the by-law would be enforced to the letter. Councillor Sinclair contended that the present sanitary outlook is worse than last summer, or at least fully as grave, pointing out that he knew of several cases of typhoid fever. Dr. Brown, who was present, wasn't so sure about it, and a lively discussion also ensued about sewage conditions on South Second street. The council is taking steps now looking to starting the sewerage system in Redcliff next summer.

BILLS BEING PAID; LATER COUNCIL NEWS

The city's obligations to local merchants are now being paid. It was made known at Wednesday afternoon's special council meeting that a bank credit of $40,000, is available, instead of $15,000, as announced in another section of this paper. Accordingly orders from the mayor were given to the secretary-treasurer to issue checks at once for all local bills that have been passed by the finance committee. Deducting the city's overdraft on its bank there still remains on deposit to the city's credit of this $40,000 the sum of $18,000 for defraying all other obligations. In other words, the city's debt column showed $22,000 in its bank, which timeliness is now wiped out, but a new account is available.

The sum due all local merchants and tradesmen is $6,210. The men who have been working in the ditches hold city notes to the amount of $3,106. Those must be paid at once also, and are being drawn on the proper fund, the debentures having been sold for waterworks extension purposes. In addition to the $9,307 thus incurred the city owes about $5,000 to the Crane-Orway people. The Canadian Fairbanks Co. and the Gedney-Gray Co. are also creditors of the city for considerable sums, which will be met in part at once by orders of Mayor Daniels on Wednesday. The sum due the Holton, Leander and Goode Co. for the construction of the fresh fish tank has been paid off to the amount of $2,400. The city was credited $400 on its account with this firm in lieu of rectifying a construction error, and plus the sundries on the account the amount due at the present time is $2,089.

LETTER FROM BRITAIN
Mayor Daniels is in receipt of a letter from Bernard Brittain, of the Alma Works in Sheffield, England. Mr. Brittain expressed satisfaction at having received title to the treasure property grant on the fulfillment of its agreement with the town of Redcliff to construct a planing mill, which is now in operation on First street south. Mr. Brittain seemed to regret that there seems to be discussion on the advisability of the city's retaining the $150,000 portion clause in their industrial agreements. Mayor Daniels as much as admitted Wednesday that the city would have to live up to the coal clause if manufacturers contracted with wish to hold the city to it.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The council heard complaint by Alderman Hodge to the effect that the sidewalks recently laid are a nuisance, due to the uneven cutting of boards, leaving projections. Alderman Sinclair explained that the boards are as cut at the mill and will be trimmed at once.

Nonunionism in the town election will be received at Crowe's Hall on December 1st, between 11 a. m. and 12 m. This decision was arrived at in council.

Among other details the council is preparing to erect a cheap storehouse to the rear of the present city hall. The present fire hall is burdened with city supplies that would be in the way at times of alarm.

A cold spell is predicted by the weather bureau. Plans for the storm stash, doors and such, with Paul Voelt. He will do it right. First Avenue and First Street, N. E. 442 taxes, revenues and the government are conducted and we are here to warn you that you must be vigilant to the interests of liberty in thought and action."

Prior to Rev. Moore's remarks Mr. Evans, of Medicine Hat, briefly referred to the founding of the Orange Lodge and its principles. He stated that loyalty to a government which is not a government of oppression is the basic principle of the Lodge, as embodied in its name. The construction Mr. Evans' auditors would naturally place on his remarks would be that Ireland is soundly governed today and that Redmond and his Home Rule following are departing from the constitutional government as supported by Orangemen in all parts of the British domain.

Rev. Wright, of Bow Island, spoke to the audience near the close of the meeting and cited reasons for his stand. The general attitude of the speakers was that of a unanimous stand toward the individual but an uncompromising one on educational, religious and personal liberty.

Seasoned between the addresses of the meeting there were vocal and instrumental selections. Miss Cecilia MacKay was called back to the piano with repeated applause, and a banjo quartette rendered a novel selection in a soprano scale. Following the business of the meeting an auctioneer took the stand and sold under the hammer about forty boxes of fruit and candies for prices ranging from a dollar to $10 dollars. The bidding was hot and fast and should put a blanket on the tight money talk as far as Redcliff is concerned anyway. Not a box went begging, and the average price was around $3. After the supper dancing continued for an hour.

Six Inside Lots Bring $10,000

Real estate sales involving a total of $10,000 in practically one transaction were consummated by the Stoner Agencies Co. Wednesday when six lots were turned over averaging nearly $2,000 apiece, which is evidence that high class Redcliff property is in demand. The property sold was as follows: Lot 21, Block 71, $1800; Lots 22 and 23, Block 81, at $3800 the pair, Lot 34, Block 81, $1700, and in Block 86 Lot 19 for $1800 and Lot 30 for $1700.

The bazaar and evening concert, when C. S. Dingle, M. P., will be present, will both be held in Maple Hall at the far end of the city. There will be Christmas presents of ladies' handwork of every description, and dolls dressed for Santa Claus to give out to the children. There will also be a children's banquet followed by tea and music for the ladies. Plain home cooking and candy will be in abundance.

Are Organizing Local Orchestra

Believing that a finished orchestra that will be able to furnish dance and lodge music for all the requirements of Redcliff can be worked up with the material available, several musically inclined men in the south end of town are trying to organize an orchestra, and will hold an entertainment and concert on Tuesday, November 18.

Mr. W. H. Johnson, who will be the pianist of the orchestra, says that five pieces are available, Mr. J. F. Ellman, first violin, R. Pickering, cornetist, T. Pickering, second violin, and Edward Cameron on the drum.

Mr. J. L. Landis went to Calgary Tuesday when the High River gas strike was announced.

HAS A DOUBLE APPLICATION

On the Atlantic,
Pastor Russell's text for to-day was:
"He that sitteth in the Heavens shall laugh; the Lord shall have them in derision." (Psalm 2:4.) He said:
The vast ocean, on which this stately ship is but a toy, reminds me of "God's mercy, like the wideness of the sea," and also of the vastness of Divine Power, and human insignificance in comparison. Humanity may justly feel exulted by the progress made in the past century.

God's people, guided by their Father's Word, and by the spirit of a sound mind, are held back from such delusion. They see that there are not many great or mighty to-day, as compared with the nobilities of the past. They see that God is behind the wonderful developments of to-day; for we are living in "the day of His preparation" (Nahum 2:3) for Messiah's Kingdom, and the Reign of a thousand years. These perceive that God is gradually lifting the veils

The kings of the earth, in a broad sense, include financial kings and captains of industry, as well as political chieftains. These wise men of the world have grasped the situation only in part. They perceive the blessings and the riches rolling in upon the world through human invention, and are fortifying themselves in luxury and power beside the golden streams they have corralled.

Thus they have "set themselves, according to our text. Moreover

The Bible is the great stronghold of liberty. Through it the masses of ignorant, backward, heathen, and peasant, rich and poor, must eventually stand before the Judgment Seat and be judged by one Law. This same Bible portrays to us not only the Plan of God, but the Plan of Restoration—the rolling away of the yoke and the installation of God's blessing, through Messiah's Kingdom, through Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the King of the Kingdom of God on earth. The Kingdom is n.e.w., and that it will be inaugurated in the midst of a great time of trouble, symbolically represented by St. Peter as a conflagration, is a fact. This prophecy was fulfilled in respect to Jesus when Pilate and Herod, as representing the worldly powers, took counsel with the chief priests, Scribes and Pharisees, as representing the rulers of the people of God. The religious rulers were leaders, prime movers in the opposition.

What happened to the Master Himself in the way of opposition from the religious rulers and, under their instigation, from the political rulers, is what we should expect shortly as the fulfilment of this prophecy. The opposition that will arise will be last members of the Church, the Body of Christ, should suffer with Him and enter into His glory, by the resurrection "change." Then, too, instead of succeeding, the plans of the rulers all failed. Under Divine disfavor, they entered the time of trouble, which culminated in the complete overthrow of their polity. Here we are to expect the same. The Divine purposes, instead of being thwarted, will be helped onward by human opposition to the Divine Plan.

The declaration further is that "the people (the fav. d. people of God and first Christians) will be in the Kingdom of the living God."

The Lord's next step will be to produce the Time of Trouble, which will teach mankind the great lesson they have declined to learn otherwise. "Then shall He speak to them in His wrath, and vex them in His sore displeasure." That will be the Time of Trouble so prominently mentioned throughout the Bible, "a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation," "no, nor ever shall be" afterward.—Daniel 12:1; Matthew 24:21.

But all the low righteousness and lowly piety will be welcomed to associate themselves under Messiah's standard whether they be rich or poor, whether they be Jew or Gentile.

However, strange it may appear to some, a serious misinterpretation of this very prophecy of the Second Coming of Christ has been made by the fond forefathers. And that misinterpretation brought into the world a vast amount of trouble and persecution.

It came to be generally believed that the Redeemer would come to the

On many occasions verse 13 was quoted as a warning to kings and to princes that they must keep in

The answer came promptly enough that this was merely another fulfillment of Scripture—the losing of Satan at the end of the thousand years. (Revelation 20:7-10.) The prediction was made, and fully believed, that very soon the adverse conditions would pass away, and the ecclesiastical throne be re-established in greater power and glory than ever before. But instead, Ecclesiasticism has waned. In September 1870 its last support gave way in the French de-

Since then, Bible students, and indeed the whole world, are awakening to the fact that no real Millennium of blessing was enjoyed during the thousand years of the past. We see instead that it was a period of great darkness, superstition and ignorance. Furthermore, the whole world is becoming convinced that the blessings that have come to us during the past

How much need we have to remember our text! KEEP HOUSE COOL

Ways of Preventing the Summer Home From Becoming Hot.

LET IN THE GOOD NIGHT AIR.

night hours. Therefore the night air should be allowed to circulate freely through every part of the house. The best circulation is obtained by having windows open at the top and bottom instead of entirely at the bottom. This lets out the hot air and lets in the cool. When this method is followed put the screen in the lower sash of one window of each room and in the upper sash of another.

It is especially important that the attic and cellar should have proper ventilation. In the former a skylight or window should be kept open night and day; except, of course, when it rains. The cellar windows should be open only at night when it is comparatively cool.

FOR AUTUMN DARE.

A Powder Box Bag.
A pretty and useful bag which may be made at the least amount as a bag for the powder box: Use a yard of four inch ribbon in a pretty flowered design, cut in thirds, lay one piece over the other and fasten together by stitching. Double, where all seams are joined, and gather the ends enough to be sewn to a circular piece of cardboard two and a quarter inches in diameter and fasten the ends of the ribbon with the ribbon. Having attached one end, which will be the right side, to the seam will not show, cover with the other circular bit. An inch from the top of the bag, sew a little hole large enough to hold the draw strings as feather or briar stick it on. Put into it a box of powder, and the work is done.

KEEP THE MARRIED MEN

We understand that quite a number of city employees will soon be laid off because of the completion of considerable work that the city had undertaken in the summer. It would be a sensible and commendable course if the city would discontinue very much in favor of the married men when the slashing of the force comes. By so doing the city would be supporting the permanent home people instead of casting its money to the winds in the hands of single fellows who spend their money out of town. And besides the married man needs employment this year.

TWO PRICES FOR EVERYTHING

Since the new tariff law of the United States went into effect on October 3 there has already developed a quite perceptible shift in the current of trade channels, say press reports. Simultaneous with the reduction of the American tariffs wheat on the other side took a tumble to a point far below records of many years. A low mark for recent years of 79¢ cents was recorded. This sympathetic drop took place in spite of Canadian countervailing duties already interposed between Canadian grains and the American market.

Today in the markets of London and Liverpool Canadian and Buffalo or Minneapolis flour are alike selling at a figure at which dealers half a block from the mills where the flour is ground out are unable to consider. This is a matter of common information. In England the reason is free trade. But immediately a high protectionist is likely to argue that in spite of cheap bread and other cheap necessities of life, English working people are, or until recently have been, in a more impoverished state than the masses of other countries. This may be true to the letter, but it does not offset satisfactorily in the minds of the consumers of America the ingratitude and injustice of tariffs which will allow a manufacturer to sell at a profit a product 4,000 miles from where it is produced at a lower price than at the mills of the mills. This fact alone is exhibit No. 1 in the impeachment of the North American manufacturer. The protectionist consumers will continue to delude themselves while the manufacturers was fat on them.

No wonder we have predatory wealth in America, both in Canada and the States and more particularly to the south when one stops to consider that he is paying indirectly and through diverse channels prices for his bread and butter of not only the cost of production and a fair profit, but of an imaginary haul of thousands of miles arising from this false protection. He is paying not only two prices for the flour as flour alone, but he is paying for the agricultural machinery that made it possible to be placed before him. American implements sell cheaper in the Argentine than they do in the cities where they are turned out. Of the steel that is in them the same holds good and one could go on a cycle of similar illustrations. Is it to be wondered at that the people are learning to hit back?

Councillor Lavells wanted to know Monday night why considerable sums of money were shown on the city's audits under the classification of sundries, and Councillor Hodge wanted to know what justified some recent expense accounts. These are good contentions, not that anything is wrong, but we want to know that it is right.

We heard that one of the marauding cows received something to wake it one the other night. It wouldn't be surprising if the milk supply itself gets punctured one of these nights, from the general indignation talk floating around.

That five white girls were married to Chinamen in Boston by means of illegal marriage certificates forged by her is the charge brought against a white woman named Maude Young. If there had not been many similar cases of young white women wedding Chinese and Japs on the Pacific coast the solution might look plausible that the exodus of young men from the Atlantic Coast had left young women in that section to such courses through economic reasons. Something is radically wrong when women of any station in life will marry an Asiatic. It is another argument that the Chinks and Japs should be kept where they belong.

Well, the sidewalks look good anyway.

James J. Hill paints a horrible picture of starvation pending in the States and attributes a pending calamity to the over bonding of consolidations. It's one of Jim's usual howls while he continues to consolidate for himself. May be he has turned socialist and is going to divvy up.

Tammany has been spoken to by the people and has received probably the most crushing blow in its history as a corrupt political machine. Confine at this time the defeat has a popular significance as expressing the sentiment through the recent Salzer controversy and impeachment.

Brick Go Through Fire
Before they Go to You.

They are made from clay and the clay is burned in a heat that averages 2300 degrees Fahrenheit—a heat far greater than any fire they will ever be called upon to pass through in the walls of your house.

This is what makes Brick Fire-proof.
That is what makes Brick Frost-proof.
That is what makes Brick Impenetrable.

Build Your Home of Brick—ITS ECONOMY
True economy not only takes in the first cost but the cost that is to come. Brick houses of average construction cost but a few dollars more than lumber or stucco—say $150. on a $3,500 house. But when they are erected cost stops. There are no repairs to be figured on. There is no painting to be counted in every 3 or 4 years. There is no depreciation in price—consequently your house will sell for what it cost you, plus the increase of the value of your lot in the meanwhile.
There is a reduction in the insurance rate of 37½ per cent over concrete or stucco and more than 50 per cent over lumber. There is a reduction in fuel bills because brick keeps out the frost in winter. There is comfort in summer because brick keeps out the heat. And above all you can borrow more money from your bank on a brick house ten years after it is constructed than you can on a lumber or concrete of the same value in the same period of time. When you build, build for true economy.

Hockey Manager to Enter Team in Amateur Association

Club Organized and Will Send Manager to Calgary Conference.

To enter the Redcliff Hockey team in the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association by sending Mr. E. P. Murphy, manager of the team, to Calgary for the purpose when the association convenes on the 14th of the month was the decision of the club at its first meeting Monday night, at which officers for the season were elected. The hockey players themselves believe in each other and in the team's ability to compete with anything in the province.

That Taber, Alta., became a familiar word to newspaper readers through the showing of its hockey team was one of the points brought out by one of Redcliff's Hockey Club officers in his contention that the business men should support the team until one hour's practice on three nights of the week. This time will be so arranged as not to interfere with ice skating in the evening and will probably be between seven and eight o'clock. In exchange for this rink owners will derive 30 per cent of the gate receipts from all hockey games played in Redcliff. This portion will defray the cost of the use of the rink for such games also.

An executive committee of the four active officers of the club was appointed to arrange for matches with rival teams, etc., in conjunction with the advice of the captain of the team, a position not yet announced, but in all probability Joe Oullet will be the man selected, as he has had wide experience as a hockey player and is no doubt capable to run the team on the ice.

Patrons of the team were elected as follows: Mr. J. L. Landis, Mr. W. T. Lockwood, Mr. C. S. Pingle, Mr. F. P. Murdoch and Mayor E. C. Daniels.

The officers elected were as follows: H. O. Wheeler, honorary president; D. Broadfoot, honorary vice-president; R. Cairns, president; T. A. Lamm, vice-president; J. G. Douglas, secretary-treasurer and E. P. Murphy, manager.

The hockey club will meet next Monday evening at the Laurel

Hotel for further arrangements for the season.

Late this week a letter has been received by the Redcliff Hockey Club from the secretary of the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association stating that the annual meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. in Calgary on Nov. 14, a week from today. The communication requests a delegate from Redcliff.

A horse attached to a light vehicle took fright at something in the business district last Saturday night and got beyond the control of the driver. Near the plant of the Clay Products Co., the horse ran into a brick wall. The occupants, whose names were not learned, were uninjured, but the horse sustained a broken leg. Constable Reynolds was called and put an end to its sufferings. It was later learned that the rig belonged to a farmer from six miles east of Medicine Hat. Joe Turrent of Redcliff was in the conveyance at the time.

Just "Dat Dere, Cullud Man" Takes Masquerade Laurels

Entre Nous Dance Was Good; Ladies in Exquisite Costumes.

Every description of costumes was seen on the floor at last Friday night's masquerade ball of the Entre Nous Club and had a prize been offered for the best disguise it would have been a struggle between rich and ridiculous makeups.

Among the ladies present Misses Robertson and McKelvie were excellent in the role of Indian maidens, but Miss Cecilia MacKay was more effectively disguised in a Princess of India costume. Mrs. F. F. Hurd looked stunning in a white Washington makeup and Mrs. J. F. Lyne was probably the most original of all, dressed as a little girl.

Joe Oulles deserves honorable mention for the graceful lines of his exquisite pink gown and the touching expression of his lady-face mask. Howard Freeman, however, made the best hit as a lady and all the boys were hunting "her" up for a dance.

Mr. Douglas was seen as "cullud" man, too, but evidently he wasn't accustomed to dancing so lively and steady as they do at white folks dances, because his collar had absorbed a lot of his ethiopian complexion before the evening was over.

Mr. Chadwell, as a Japanese of the earlier days, was one of the richest makeups on the floor. Monte Woodcock also was striking in costume as Mark Anthony and was a match for A. A. Stegler, who wore an English court costume. Carl Hall and Mr. Snowden were also good in Scottish Highland costumes.

The dance was a financial success as well as in every other point, and will quite offset the deficit of the dance of Oct. 3.

Supper was served at midnight and many of the men left for a short time to change attire and then danced on until about 2:30 in the morning. The decorations and supper were both appropriate for the harvest season. Many of those who did not take part in the dance but had come to see the costumes and decorations declared that it was the finest masquerade affair they had ever witnessed.

Men's Christian League.

At a meeting of the League last evening it was decided to immediately rent the basement of the Howard Block for club-rooms and committees were appointed to see about furnishing it and providing heating material and amusements. Daily papers from Chicago, Minneapolis, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, Spokane, Medicine Hat, and Redcliff will be provided. A piano is being purchased. Writing material will be provided. Boxing gloves have been promised and later, if the fellows really wish it, a wrestling mat and punching bag will be placed in the rooms. There has been enough money subscribed to start the movement going but at least one hundred dollars more should be raised in order to put it on the solid foundation that it should be on.

Mr. Hector Lang of Medicine Hat will speak to the men Sunday afternoon on the subject "The Great Aim of Life." A large crowd of men should be out at that time to hear him. The meeting will be held in Crowe's Hall, at three o'clock. There will be special music.

Mr. Lang was, until recently, principal of the Regina Collegiate Institute. He has had considerable experience in speaking before Y. M. C. A. gatherings and has a strong, virile message for men. He is a "live wire" and every man in town should make a special effort to get out and meet him. It will be possible to get the club-rooms fitted up before Sunday and consequently the meeting will be held in Crowe's Hall. A hearty welcome to all.

War Due Among Implement Man'frs.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6th.—"There will be in the next few years competition such as the world has never seen. A war is on now, but only in agricultural implements, but in harvesters, plows, which is going to be the fiercest ever known."

Such was the statement of John P. Wilson, counsel for the defense in the application of the state to divide up the International Harvester company. He declared that the war was coming whether the plea was granted or not.

Attorney General E. McHenry, concluding final arrangements for the application of the International Harvester company, before the United States district court this afternoon, asked that an interlocutory decree be entered by the court, declaring the harvester company a monopoly in restraint of trade. He requested that the defendants have a reasonable time to exhibit to the court a proper plan of re-organization.

Four Bails.

Mrs. Newell—I went through George's pockets last night to hunt for change, as you advised me to, and I found some letters which I gave him to post last week, and now I don't dare tell him about the letters.
